Marcel Pelletier Scintillates As Cougars Shade Flyers

EDMONTON—Victoria Cougars, getting brilliant goaltending from Marcel Pelletier and an overtime goal from Al Nicholson, edged the Edmonton Flyers, 2-1, last night to pick up their first points on the current road trip.

Cougars, who got just two points on their last trip to the prairies, will try to make it four tonight when they meet the Calgary Stampeders, who had their eight-game winning streak broken last night by Winnipeg Warriors.

Pelletier gave up a goal to Gene Achtymichuk midway through the first period, but after that he was unbeatable. He made 43 saves in all.

The Edmonton goal was the result of a misplay by the Cougar defence, rather than a mistake on the part of Pelletier. Achtymichuk stole the puck from Jim Hay in front of the Cougar net and gave Pelletier no chance.

Defenceman Carl Kaiser was sitting out a hooking penalty at the time, and had been off the ice for only three seconds before Edmonton struck for the first goal.

Veteran centre Doug Anderson converted Bruce Lea's goalmouth pass in the third period after the teams battled through a scoreless second period.

Edmonton started fast, firing 20 shots at Pelletier in the first period. But, as the game wore on, Cougars rallied and were pressing strongly in the final period and in overtime before Nicholson found the range with a low, 25-foot drive. The goal was his 32nd of the season.

FOUR PENALTIES

Only four penalties were called in the fast but cleanly-played game. Victoria drew all four, including a bench penalty to coach Pat Egan, who was tagged for yelling at referee Vern Buffey.

Not a single penalty was called in the second, third or overtime periods.

ALONE IN SECOND

The victory gave Cougars sole possession of third place in the western division of the Western Hockey League as Spokane lost a 6-3 verdict to Seattle Totems. Cougars are still six points behind second-place Vancouver Canucks.

Vancouver, Seattle Both Earn Points

Seattle Totems and Vancouver Canucks, running one-two in the western division of the Western Hockey League, both earned victories before hometown fans last night.

Totems fired four goals in the third period to defeat Spokane Spokes, 6-3, while Canucks edged New Westminster Royals, 2-1, in overtime.

Bill MacFarland and Rudy Filion each scored twice for the high-flying Totems. Filion's second goal was scored into an empty net late in the third period. Other Seattle scorers were Tommy McVie and Don Chiupka.

For the Spokes, Ching Johnson, Con Madigan and Joe Lund were the marksmen.

ONE ASSIST

Seattle's Guyle Fielder was held to one assist and trails Calgary's Ed Dorohoy by five points.

At Vancouver, Gary Blaine, a defenceman converted to a forward, scored both Canuck goals.

After Blaine's first goal broke a scoreless tie in the third period, veteran centre Max McNab tied the game for New Westminster with just 45 seconds remaining.

Royals, mired in last place in the western division, outshot the Canucks, 35-29, but couldn't solve the netminding of Bruce Gamble.

The loss left New Westminster 12 points behind the Spokane Spokes, who are in fourth place, the last playoff spot.

Courtenay Displays Power; Esquimalt Cagers Sidelined

By JIM TAYLOR

Victoria High School Totems breezed into the finals of the Vancouver Island high school basketball tournament as expected last night, but they may have run into a major stumbling block in their defence of the Colonist Cup.

Courtenay Towhees, refusing to crack under continuous pressure, upset Alberni High Chieftains, 48-47, in their semi-final, while the Totems were whipping Cumberland Chiefs, 46-26. The manner of the Courtenay victory marked the Towhees as serious threats to the Totems' long-time Island supremacy.

Alberni had provided the upset of the tournament in the first round, ousting the heavily-favored Esquimalt Dockers, 41-39. Chieftains play Cumberland tonight for third place and the third berth in the B.C. playoffs March 7-8 in Vancouver.

CLIFF-HANGER

It was left to the Chieftains and Towhees to provide the cliff-hanger of the tournament. Towhees built up a quick early lead, but Alberni came back to trail by only two points, 22-20, at the half.

It stayed that close most of the way. Chieftains came within three points several times in the last five minutes, and finally tied the score at 43-43 with less than three minutes left. From there is seesawed until Gordon Beecher gave Towhees a three-point edge, 48-45, when he was fouled in the act of shooting.

Gene Kimoto brought Alberni within a single point, but the Chieftains missed their final chance when Rick Williamson missed a foul shot, with a bonus throw in the offing if he made it.

STANDOUT

Williamson was a standout for the Chieftains, scoring 17 points. Betcher had 15 for the Towhees.

Totems, after a 59-32 opening-round win over Chemainus, got through a shaky first half to trim Cumberland. Darrell Lorimer scored 13 points for the Totems in the opener, then sank 19 against Cumberland. Dave Black, hitting consistently from the outside, added 15 against the Chiefs.

Dockers, who lost the opener through poor foul shooting, came back to defeat Lake Cowichan, 46-40, in their second game, and will play Oak Bay for fourth place. The Bays were beaten, 41-36, by Cumberland, then edged Chemainus, 46-44.

First game of today's round at the Esquimalt High gym starts at 2.30. Totems play Courtenay at 8.45.

Ace Breezes Past Italo

NEW YORK (AP)—Undefeated Gene (Ace) Armstrong ran his victory streak to 17 Friday night by soundly whipping Italo Scortichini, Italian middleweight champion, in a televised 10-rounder at Madison Square Garden. Scortichini weighed 161, Armstrong 157¾.

After the third round, the 27-year-old contender from Elizabeth, N.J., won almost as he pleased. Gene was a 4-1 favorite.

Seattle Shuttle Star Reaches Two Finals

Nick Johnstone of Seattle gained a berth in both the men's single and men's double finals of the Vancouver Island Open badminton championships last night at the Cordova Bay Community Hall.

Johnstone, who defeated Rodger Lindal, 18-16, 17-18, 15-4, in a singles semi-final match, will meet Harvey Hurd in the final.

Hurd entered the final by defeating Ed Headley, 10-15, 15-12, 18-16.

In the men's doubles, Johnstone teamed with John Barrett, also of Seattle, to defeat Bob Hunt and Headley, 8-15, 15-12, 15-10, in the semi-finals.

Eric Hibbertson and Stu Read gained the other final berth, turning back Jim Wells and Hurd, 12-15, 15-6, 15-8.

Sharon Whittaker, scoring an 11-2, 11-0 victory over Aileen Green of Youbou, advanced to the final of the women's singles competition.

Other women's singles finalist is Jean Massey, who defeated Ann Currie, 11-9, 5-11, 11-0, in the semi-finals.

Finals in all events will be played tonight at the Cordova Bay Hall starting at 7 p.m.

Big Margin For Capitals

Capitals took an eight-goal lead in a two-game, total-point series for the city bantam hockey championship yesterday, defeating Maroons, 9-1, at Memorial Arena.

Wayne Anderson led the Capitals attack, scoring four goals. Dave Woodley scored twice and Jasper Bomhoff, Bruce Sanson and Dave Cutler each tallied once.

For the losers, Harvey Stevenson was the lone scorer.

Alberni A's Stop C-FUN

ALBERNI—Alberni Athletics took a one-game lead in their best-of-seven series for the British Columbia senior "A" basketball championship last night, defeating Vancouver C-FUN, 88-73.

Ken Larsen led the Alberni attack with 19 points and turned in an outstanding checking chore on Vancouver ace Bob Pickell. Joe Samarin hit for 18 points and Doug Brinham collected 16 for the winners.

Although he scored 24 points, Pickell was held to four field goals, scoring 16 points from the foul line. Bob Ramsay scored 14 points and Herb Olafson 12 for C-FUN.

Warriors Finish Calgary's Streak

WINNIPEG — Winnipeg Warriors, battling for third place and the final playoff spot in the eastern division of the Western Hockey League, defeated the Calgary Stampeders, 4-2, last night before 3,871 fans.

The victory was only the second for Winnipeg in 10 games between the two teams this season. After winning their first game of the season, Warriors lost eight straight to the Stampeders. The loss was Calgary's first in their last nine games.

The win boosted Warriors three points ahead of Saskatoon Quakers, who have two games in hand in the battle for the last playoff berth.

Eddie Dorohoy, the league's leading scorer, was held pointless by the close-checking Warriors.

Red Johansen, Dick Lamoureux, Ray Brunel and Pete Kapusta scored for Warriors. Calgary marksmen were Ron Leopold and Murray Wilkie.

Cambridge Cricketer Shines with Century

CHRISTCHURCH, N.Z. (Reuters)—Cambridge University cricket star Ted Dexter hammered out 123 runs Friday to lead England to a total of 336 for eight wickets on the opening day of the test match against New Zealand.

Dexter, summoned after injuries had sidelined several other players, batted for three hours and 15 minutes. He had 21 fours and a five.

England appeared to be in trouble when opening batsmen Willie Watson and Peter Richardson collaped with only 30 runs scored. But Peter May, with 71, and Tom Graveney, with 52, launched the recovery and Dexter completed it with his first test century.

The third-wicket stand was broken soon after lunch when Graveney was leg before at 98, but May went on to complete a half-century with his ninth boundary in 85 minutes.

Rugby Tourists Praised

Canada's touring all-star rugby team won lavish praise from the Japanese press yesterday following their 17-3 victory over Meiji University in the opening game of an eight-game tour of Japan.

"Their backs are strong," wrote one Japanese sports-writer. "Their dribbling was excellent."

"They really know the game," another noted.

Masao Wada, director of the Kanto-Tokyo area Rugby Association, said "their passes seem to be of a higher standard than any foreign team that have visited Japan in the past."

"The Canadian orthodox style and aggressive but not rough playing have also made a favorable impression on the Japanese," Wada added.
